

SEMINAR, EXHIBITS, AUCTION & MORE

Saturday, June 12, 10:00.

Introduction to ABC Glass and Pottery.

Deborah Truitt and Ian Macmillan will present this seminar that focuses on ABC glass and pottery from early 1800s to 1940s. The session includes a brief history of the ABC geographic area. Using items in the room, they will provide an overview of styles, plus identification of many of the companies and the types of glass and ceramics made.

This seminar is designed for people who are new to ABC glass and pottery collecting and for those looking for a new area of collecting.

FREE TO THE PUBLIC.

CZECH DECO LADIES

Tom and Jane Rood will display a variety of their lady friends to show different makers (e.g., Royal Dux, Perkenhammer, Erphila) and different types of finishes.

BOHEMIAN ENGRAVED GLASS

Deborah Truitt will display her collection of Bohemian engraved glass. It includes pieces showing cameo and intaglio engraving; stone-wheel and copper-wheel engraving, plus acid-etched, pressed, and sand-blasted glass for comparison. It includes one piece engraved by Jiří Harcuba.

SILENT AUCTION

Again this year we will offer a Silent Auction. Members donate the items, with the proceeds going to CCA, as a way to keep the registration fees low. Items may relate to CCA, an area of collecting, or something creative or unique that might appeal to another member.

CONSIGNMENT AUCTION

Members are invited to consign ABC items to an auction conducted by Christys of Indiana. It will be advertised as a "Christys' auction with items vetted by CCA." The auction will include a wide range of items of different styles and time periods.

FREE TO THE PUBLIC.

DINNERS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Friday, June 11 — the Czech and Slovak Society of Indianapolis is hosting CCA at a Czech/Slovak dinner and entertainment. The meal will include a traditional meat and dumpling dish (Svickova) and kolache for dessert. Entertainment will include music and demonstration of holiday traditions.

Saturday, June 12 — the Annual Banquet will be held at the hotel. Special entertainment is being planned by some members.
